

USING CME CREDITS FROM MEDMASTERY

A step-by-step Guide

So, you're a clinician who needs to fulfill CME / CE (or equivalent) requirements? Well, consider that problem solved.

With the Medmastery Pro Membership you can now become a great clinician AND accomplish your CME / CE requirements conveniently from your living room.

Here's how...

LEARN MORE ABOUT OUR CME CREDITS...

- Most of Medmastery's courses are certified for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ through joint providership with accredited CME providers. Please see the activity info link within each accredited course or workshop for the activity's accreditation info.
- Medmastery is accredited by the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME), who has mutual recognition agreements with over 20 European countries.
- Pro membership clinicians can download a certificate with either AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ or European CME credits (ECMECs) when successfully completing a certified course or workshop.
- Certificates can be viewed and downloaded conveniently at any time 24/7 as long as you have a Pro Membership.

US CME Credit

European CME Credit

HOW TO ACCESS CME CREDITS ON MEDMASTERY...

- In order to access CME credits, you need an active Medmastery Pro Membership. Don't have a Pro Membership yet? Click here for more information.
- Login to your account, go to the course library and select the course or workshop you want to redeem credits for.
- Successful completion requires a passing score of at least 70%.
- Please submit the post-evaluation form after completion of a course or workshop. The post-evaluation form is a requirement of the ACCME (Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education) and EACCME (European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education) and helps accredited providers to evaluate the effectiveness in meeting identified educational goals.
- Medmastery issues two types of certificates for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™, one for physicians and one for non-physicians. Physicians (MDs, DOs, and those with equivalent medical degrees from another country) will receive a certificate awarding them AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™, while non-physicians will receive a certificate that states the activity was certified for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ and the amount of credit the activity was designated for.
- Once you've completed the above steps, your certificate will be ready for download on the course page.

TRANSFERRING CME CREDITS TO YOUR COUNTRY...

Here's how you can transfer the credits redeemed on Medmastery to various other countries¹...

¹ We regularly collect information about how to transfer AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ and European CME credits (ECMECs) to other countries. The information presented in this document was retrieved from the websites of various national accrediting bodies. Medmastery does not guarantee that your national accrediting body will transfer the credits as described. Should you be aware of any changes to the procedures described below, please email us at support@medmastery.com

EUROPEAN COUNTRIES WITH MUTUAL RECOGNITION AGREEMENTS WITH EACCME

The following countries have signed mutual recognition agreements with EACCME and will accept Medmastery's European CME credits:

- Austria
- Armenia
- Belgium
- Bulgaria
- Croatia
- Cyprus
- Finland
- Georgia
- Greece
- Hungary
- Ireland
- Regione
- Lombardia
- Luxembourg
- Malta
- Netherlands
- Norway
- Poland
- Portugal
- Romania
- Slovakia
- Spain
- Sweden
- Tunisia
- Turkey
- United Kingdom
(Royal College of Physicians only)

Upon successful completion of your Medmastery course, please submit your Medmastery certificate to your national or local medical association.

EUROPEAN COUNTRIES WITHOUT MUTUAL RECOGNITION AGREEMENTS WITH EACCME

Italy - Ciao!

National Commission for Continuing Medical Education

Medmastery is considered as a Foreign Provider. Italian physicians can earn up to 50% of their credits needed over a three-year period from foreign providers. However, credits from foreign providers will only be recognized at 50% of the credit awarded and no more than 25 credits per course.

Health professionals registered to an order or members of a professional organization have to send a request to claim credits and all the relevant documents to their order/organization. Other professionals (not enrolled in any order or organization) have to send the same documentation to this email address:

ecm.professionistisanitari@agenas.it

United Kingdom

Royal College of General Practitioners

The RCGP operates its own CPD accreditation scheme for activities relevant to the CPD of GPs and other Primary Care clinicians. There is currently no arrangement in place to convert activities accredited for CME in the US to be accredited for GPs in the UK.

EUROPEAN COUNTRIES WITH MUTUAL RECOGNITION AGREEMENTS WITH ACCME

The following countries accept ACCME-accredited continuing medical education (CME):

- Antigua & Barbuda
- Austria
- Bahamas
- Belgium
- Bhutan
- Canada
- Croatia
- Gambia, The
- Germany
- India, State of Punjab
- Israel
- Jamaica
- Kuwait
- Malawi
- Malaysia
- Netherlands, The
- Oman
- Qatar
- Rwanda
- Saudi Arabia
- Singapore
- Southn Africa
- Spain
- Sri Lanka
- Sweden
- Trinidad & Tobago
- Tunisia
- Turkey
- United Arab Emirates, Abu Dhabi
- United Arab Emirates, Dubai

Please visit <https://accme.org/> for the most current list, along with accurate credit requirements. Please note that some countries that accept ACCME-accredited education do not have specific credit requirements for their physicians.

OTHER COUNTRIES

Australia - G'day mate!

Royal Australasian College of Physicians
(RACP)

The RACP MyCPD program is a self-directed and self-reporting tool enabling participants to record and report on CPD activities they judge relevant to the scope of their practice. RACP Fellows who complete a Medmastery course that has been certified for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ are eligible to claim one credit per AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ toward Category 6 requirements of the RACP MyCPD Program.

You can find more information about the continuing professional development (CPD) program together with the login link and requirements on the following website:
www.racp.edu.au

Hong Kong - Nei ho!

The minimum CME/CPD requirement is 90 points in a three-year cycle. Self-study is accepted as a form of CME/CPD. One hour of self-study corresponds to one CME credit. However, self-study is only accredited with prior approval from the College concerned, and with the necessary evidence that it has been carried out diligently:

You can apply for CME points from the The Hong Kong Medical Association after completing an activity and getting your certificate. To retrieve CME points, please submit the following supportive documents to cme@hkma.org:

- Filled application form
- The module author's information
- The certificate awarded
- The module's learning outcomes

For more information, go to: www.hkcp.org

UTILIZE AMA PRA CATEGORY 1 CREDIT™ TO FULFILL NON-PHYSICIAN CE REQUIREMENTS

American Academy of Family Physicians (AAFP)

Courses certified for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ are acceptable as AAFP Elective credits. For more information, go to: www.aafp.org

American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP)

Active ACEP members must earn 150 hours of CME credits every three years. Of the 150 hours, 60 must be designated as ACEP Category I. Get more information here: www.acep.org

American Academy of Nurse Practitioners (AANP)

The AANP accepts CE credit from activities certified for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. The following must exist for the content to meet the AANP's CE requirements: (Please refer to the Activity Info link on the course or workshop to verify if an activity meets these requirements.)

- Do the Course Objectives include applicable advanced practice healthcare professional content? (Please refer to the Activity Info link on the course or workshop to verify if the activity meets these requirements.)
- Does the intended audience for the course include nurse practitioners, physician assistants, physicians, and other advanced health care professionals?
- Is the CE activity relevant to your role as a Nurse Practitioner?

- Is the Program Sponsor approved as a provider of nursing or medical education? (Activities on Medmastery certified for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ met this qualification.)

When entering qualified Medmastery certificates into the log, you will be asked to enter the total number of contact hours for each course. One AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ equals one contact hour. For more information, go to: www.aanpcert.org

American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC)

The ANCC approves contact hours completed by participation in continuing medical education (CME) approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. For more information please visit:

<https://www.nursingworld.org/ancc/>

American Academy of Physician Assistants (AAPA)

Courses certified for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ are accepted by the American Academy of Physician Assistants (AAPA). Physician assistants are required to log at least 50 credits of Category 1 CME during each two-year logging cycle. For more information, go to:

www.nccpa.net

US State Boards

Your state licensing board may also accept CME activities certified for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ towards your CE requirements. We strongly encourage you to verify with your state governing body before relying on CME credit to meet your non-physician CE requirements.